

RULES OF THE LANGFORD LIBRARY

Loans. All books may be loaned for 2 weeks
Magazines may be loaned for 2 weeks
New magazines may be loaned for 1 week.

Rentals

The rental for a book on the pay shelf is 10¢ for two weeks.
A pay book may be renewed for an additional week for 5¢.
The borrower shall pay 5 cent per day for any book not returned when due.
Magazines 1 cent per week when overdue.
New magazines may be loaned one at a time.
Old magazines may be loaned 6 to 12 to include a story.
Please notify librarian if a book is lost.

Librarian is to care for room dust and sweep dust shelves

leave everything in order.
Put all books back on shelves
Keep record of funds each

VACANCY---In case of a resignation the library board select a member to fill the vacancy.

Stamping of books. Books will be stamped on page 35, 17 + Title page
Magazines will be stamped on page 21/

BOOK WEEK.

Only one book on a card for new books and no one is permitted to use book cards outside of their own family.

Lost books-- each case would be dealt with individually.
Anyone having lost books or overdue books, cannot check out books until the fines are paid. If a book was long overdue charge 50¢ and if a book of regular value was lost charge $1.00 for the same.

Care of books-- Mending is to be done when the library is open if the Librarian has time or at board meeting rather than to be allowed to accumulate. P. 39 --April, 1948

Memorials---P/ 40, 1948 --We discontinue the writing of "thank you" cards for memorial since the families of the deceased send cards and we acknowledge all gifts in the paper.

Books --p 108 July 20, 1954 Three books will be issued on a card/

Library Fiscal year be from June to June with the election of officers taking place at that time. P/ 104 Jan. 1954